Homework Club: Homework club will be held on both Monday and Thursday afternoon in the school library from 3.05pm to 4.00pm. It is open to all year groups and will begin today (Monday). Homework club will run until end of September in week 10. This is a great place for all students to attend so they can complete homework and assignments, prepare for exams and get additional help from teachers.

To celebrate NAIDOC week at Davidson High School, are running a poetry and art competition. Your poetry, multimedia project or artwork (painting or drawing) must address the theme – Keep the Fire Burning and/or address ideas around reconciliation. Please submit your entries to Ms Biasetto and Ms Howison to the HSIE staffroom. Competition ends Friday Week 1, Term 3, with winners announced Week 2 Friday.

All Girls: A reminder that feminine hygiene products in schools are a privilege, please do not misuse or waste these items in the school. If they are continually wasted, they may not be regularly replaced.

Reminder to students – Spray deodorant is NOT permitted at school due to health reasons.

All Students – when collecting siblings from Mimosa Primary School please do not use the student toilets.
