Yr10 - You will be sitting the Minimum Standards Writing Test today, pd 2 during your English lessons. Please ensure your laptop is fully charged the evening before and you still have the lockdown browser downloaded. If you do not have this, please check your Google Classroom for instructions if this has not been done.

Boys volleyball trials are on today recess in the MPC. You must attend both trials. Please bring PE clothes.

Girls volleyball trials – are on Friday recess and lunch in the MPC. You must attend both trials. Please bring PE clothes.

Whole School - Please be aware TODAY Mimosa Primary School will have a fire truck accessing their bottom oval (via the shared driveway) from approximately 11.30am. Parking in the area behind the library will be limited.

Author's Talk - Award winning author, JC Burke is coming to run a workshop for participating students this Friday in the library. Y11 Advanced - P1/ Y9EN1 + invited students - P2

All participating students need to go straight to the library for the workshop. Any questions please ask your English teachers or see Ms Ashton in the library.

Social Justice Committee – We are encouraging students to bring in products to support the “Share the Dignity” campaign. It will help people in crisis in the lead up to Christmas. Products you could bring in include, shampoo and conditioner, soap, roll on deodorant, pads/tampons, face wipes, lip gloss, sanitizer, books, or make up. No food please. The boxes that you can donate in will be in the HSIE staffroom, the library and the front office. Thank you for your support.

School Spectacular excursion - There are still some tickets remaining to attend a performance of this year's Schools Spectacular at Qudos Bank arena on Friday 29th November as part of the audience. CAPA elective students are particularly encouraged to attend. If you are keen to be part of this excursion, please see Ms Morrow or Ms Holden as soon as possible so that we can add you to the permission note.
